

The LCADA Way is dedicated to transforming the lives of individuals, families and communities suffering from alcohol and substance abuse, gambling problem and behavioral health issues. A private, non-profit organization, we are a Center of Clinical Excellence for education, prevention and treatment and a proven leader in recovery since 1981.

North Ridgeville High School has contracted with The LCADA Way, to provide prevention and treatment services on campus. Every Thursday, from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m., Prevention Specialist – Shannon Perry is on campus in the old athletic office. She provides the following services for North Ridgeville High School, its students, and their families:

- Problem identification and referral services
- Individual, classroom, and family education
- Drop in hours for students and families
- Drug and Alcohol awareness campaigns
- Consultation services

All services are confidential

If you or someone you know, is in need of these services, please feel free to contact Shannon Perry, OCPS any time at sperry@thelcadaway.org or 440-989-5902.

Prevention Services
1930 Reid Ave.
Lorain, OH 44053

North Ridgeville High School has also contracted with The LCADA Way, School-Based Counselor, Kathryn Kurtzman. She is a licensed social worker and has her CDCA, to provide services for the remainder of the 18/19 School Year. Kathryn will be at the school for a three hour block each week on Fridays from 11:30-2:30 in the old athletic office. She is available for screening students that staff or family suspect they are using, meeting with parents, and assisting with appropriate referrals for further assessment. She can be contacted through the school on Friday or reach her at 440-989-4955. Her email is kkurtzman@thelcadaway.org.